

Please do not allow the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. I can conduct any banking business I have through the existing banking methods (visit to main bank office or one of its banches, call to them during business hours, online banking, or US mail). I do not need them calling me at odd times trying to solicit services I do not desire.
Thank You.